

We came in together and are good friends!

While we may be adopted out separately, we could also go together!

If you are thinking about having a multi-cat household, we are the perfect starter pack. We already know each other and get along with each other.

We might still need a meet and greet with a slow intro to any other pets you already have.

13077 071520 DB